Why RICS Adjudication Diploma?

RICS has developed a blended learning programme specifically tailored for busy construction industry and legal professionals working in South and Sub-Saharan Africa.

What will you gain from the RICS Adjudication Diploma Course?

The Diploma course provides practical training with an emphasis on developing professional competencies in:

- how you run the adjudication process in practice, and;
- how you write a professional, competent and enforceable decision

The RICS Diploma is focused on the South African market, but exposes students to the wider international field of adjudication as it is practised around the world.

On successful completion of the Diploma, you will be eligible to apply to join the RICS International President's Panel as an Accredited Adjudicator. If successful in your application to the International President's Panel, you may receive RICS nominations to act as an adjudicator where appropriate.
